The Payillon and Arbor Meeting.

The interest in the meeting has been increasing for the past few days and last night the largest audience yet was present, and the attention was profound throughout the service. Mrs. Zehner is unquestionably a remarkable woman, and while no doubt many have been drawn to the meeting by idle curiosity, they have remained and returned again and again, being attracted by the striking personality of this excellent lady, the high character of her discourse, and her intense earnestness in her effort to lead men to a better and more hopeful life. Her time is in constant demand and she left early this morning to meet other engagements.

Mrs. Zehner will long be remembered by our people, for whom she has labored so earnestly.

The good work will still go on, and our people are urged to attend the services.

Prof. D. M. Doyle has arrived from Fort Worth to direct the singing and Jefferson is fortunate in securing him.

Prof. Doyle is a thorough musician, and his solos are worth coming miles to hear; as a choir director he stands second to none. It is safe to say that with the cooperation of our local talent, Prof. Doyle is going to provide some of the best music we have ever had in revival services or otherwise.

The services will be held as usual at 9 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

The arbor is cool and pleasant, and the people seem pleased with the arrangements made for their comfort and convenience, and they have shown their appreciation by their contribution and their presence.

To the Trade.

We are now located in the "Old Citizens Bank Building," and are ready for business. We have new fresh goods already in and more coming every day. We hope our old customers will continue to remember us and those who have not patronized us in the past will give us part of their trade in the future. We are prepared to fill all orders and guarantee everything we sell.

Thanking you for past favors and trusting we may have many new customers, we remain, Yours truly, J. H. ROWELL & SON.

A Pleasant Time.

On Tuesday, July 19th, a merry party of young people chartered the gasoline launch, "Ruthie" and went down the river to Shanghai. At this place a stop was made and after partaking of a very fine dinner prepared by the young ladies of the party, the remainder of the day was spent in merry making. "Dull care being thrown to the weary winds."

The party consisted of the following:

Mrs. Geo Todd, Misses. Addie Mae Alford, Mazie Marsden, Elizabeth Hoss, Nina Aiken, Helene Collins, Eva Todd, May Todd and Mabel Rowell.

Messrs. Theo. Thurman, Alvin Walker, Ed Brown, Wilburn Badgett, Culberson Badgett, Frank Graham, Ben Woods, Jace Jackson and Thos. Hughes.

Joe Crawford Shot.

At about 4:30 Thursday afternoon E. D. Murphy shot Joe Crawford, at the Sunset saloon with a 45 Colt's pistol, the ball hitting him in the right lung passing through the upper lobe and lodging under his shoulder. Joe is the son of Jno. R. Crawford of this city, and aged about nineteen years. It seems that he asked Murphy, who has an interest in the saloon and was keeping bar, for a match when Murphy reached for his pistol and told the boy that that was the match he would give him and shot the boy who was out on the sidewalk. Joe walked to Dr. Terhune's office about a block and he was bleeding badly from the wound and also spitting blood, and from there he was taken in a bus to his home. Drs. Terhune and Moseley following in a buggy.

On account of severe hemorrhage from the wound it is considered quite serious.

Murphy was arrested by Sheriff Haywood and taken to jail to await preliminary hearing at 10 a. m., Friday morning.

Later — Preliminary hearing postponed until Monday morning.

The Ax We Grind.

Is to offer you better shoes than any other dealer. There isn't any doubt but what we are succeeding since Walk-Over shoes for men are praised on every side. It's not that merely good leather is used: The lasts are true to nature. The workmanship is unexcelled, so it would be strange indeed if such shoes didn't prove more satisfactory than those made simply to sell. Every cent you pay for a Walk-Over shoe is fully represented by value received. Price $3.50 and $4.00.

J. J. SEGAL.
